WHEN YOU PUT SOME DISTANCE BETWEEN YOURSELF AND WHAT YOU THINK YOU KNOW, THINGS BECOME CLEAR.

You'll see overlooked details that make all the difference. You'll find connections between ideas you'd never put together—and bonds between people from different worlds. And you'll discover pathways that will carry you to a future you never thought possible. That's what it means to be uncommonly bright, to be unafraid to step outside the norm. And when you strive to see the world from new perspectives, your place in the world will come into focus.
