You know the drill —

The kids are coming home and all their door-slamming, couch-jumping friends will be coming through that back door at any minute. But hey, you don't need a minute. Just some spoons and an open mind. These magical cups of flavorful fun are perfect for calming any full house. Made simple and right with real fruit juice, Luigi's Italian Ice brings a refreshing smile to everyone's face, letting you be more spoontaneous.

Luigi's Italian Ice, the East Coast's frozen indulgence, is coming to cool down San Diego's heatwave with a one-time pop-up vending machine filled with frozen ice treats. Free samples will be doled out to visitors from 2 to 8 p.m. Saturday and from noon to 6 p.m. Sunday near The Tin Fish, 170 Sixth Ave., Gaslamp Quarter. All you have to do is tweet about it. Special surprises will take place each day, and Luigi's ambassadors will be on-site to answer any questions. facebook.com/LUIGISREALITALIANICE
